

IVSM 2021-SCHEDULE

Friday, July 9th

Registration Opens 1 pm - Conference room of the National Soaring Museum - there will be check flights for those pilots who haven't flown off Harris Hill during the last 12 months. Bid sheets for Auction sailplanes will be in the Conference Room.

Saturday, July 10

- Pilots Meeting 9 am - Safety Meeting
- Sailplane of the Day - TBA
- Lunch available $ outdoors at the National Soaring Museum - Taco Wagon
- Opening Ceremony 5pm - This is the official opening of IVSM 2021. Outdoors. The ringing of the bell and welcoming speeches. A Reception will follow at the NSM main floor - beverages & appetizers - participants on their own for dinner.

Sunday, July 11

- Morning Meeting 9:30 am
- Sailplane of the Day
- Speaker of the Day 10 am - Simine Short - The First Aero-Tow of a Glider in 1922
- Lunch available $ indoors at the National Soaring Museum - downstairs
- International Evening 6pm - This fun gathering of all participants asked to bring and share the tastes of their country or US state. The best way to meet everyone is to share a social evening together. Please bring your local treats. At the Museum.

Monday, July 12

- Morning Meeting 9:30 am
- Sailplane of the Day - Midwest MU-1
- Speaker of the Day 10 am - Chad Wille
- Lunch available indoors at the National Soaring Museum - downstairs
- Supper will be a Brat & Burger cook-out at the Flight Center- $20 suggested donation to benefit HHSC Juniors

Tuesday, July 13

- Morning Meeting 9:30 am
- Sailplane of the Day - JR-V Robin
- Speaker of the Day 10 am - Doug Fronius: JR-V Robin sailplane from 1935-2021
- Lunch available $ indoors at the National Soaring Museum - downstairs
- Participants on their own for dinner.

Wednesday, July 14

- Morning Meeting 9:30 am
- Sailplane of the Day - Schweizer SGS 2-8
- Speaker of the Day 10 am - Ron Martin on the SGS 2-8 history and about the sailplane on display
- Lunch available $ outdoors at the National Soaring Museum - Taco Wagon
- Dinner-Low Country Boil 6:30 pm - $25 - A delicious dinner hosted by Mary and Jim Stoia made famous at glider competitions. The shrimp and vegetable meal can't be missed. Volunteers are requested to give a helping hand. At the Flight Center. Tickets available at registration.

Thursday, July 15

- Morning Meeting 9:30 am
- Sailplane of the Day - Minimoa
- Speaker of the Day 10 am at NSM - Vintage Sailplanes - Getting One and Then What? - Jim Short, Steve Leonard & Neal Pfeiffer
- Lunch available $ indoors at the National Soaring Museum - downstairs
- K&L Soaring Tour and Dinner 6:30pm - Continuing a Schweizer family tradition, K&L Soaring will host a tour of their manufacturing and repair facilities for Schweizer sailplanes. Please join the gathering in nearby Cayuta, NY, for an informal dinner.

Friday, July 16th

- Morning Meeting 9:30 am
- Sailplane of the Day - Lilienthal Replica Glider
- Speaker of the Day 10 am - Dr. Markus Raffel on the Lilienthal Glider
- Lunch available $ indoors at the National Soaring Museum - downstairs
- Awards Dinner 6:30pm - $45 - A dinner and awards ceremony at the NSM giving recognition to many of the beautifully restored sailplanes at IVSM. Sailplane Silent Auction results will be announced. Tickets available at registration.

Saturday, July 17th

- Morning Meeting 9:30 am
- Sailplane of the Day - Slingsby Petrel
- Speaker of the Day 10 am - WAAAM Group
- Lunch available $ outdoors at the National Soaring Museum - downstairs